To Whom It May Concern:

Music and song are important elements for inspiring faith in people. Music and song help to create a mood and give expression to faith in a way that the spoken word alone cannot provide or accomplish. Music and song fill the air with praise of God and instills a sense of peace and joy in the heart. Donna Cori's angelic voice fulfills his under- taking in a powerful way. She embodies faith through the ministry of singing. Through the instrumentality of her melodic voice, she draws her audiences into an experience of God's love and mercy through Christ. She truly is a tool being used by God to foster and nourish faith in others.

Yours in Christ,

Michael W. Warfel
