Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, in Sulphur, Louisiana, had the distinct pleasure of welcoming Catholic recording artist, Donna Cori Gibson. Donna originates from New York City where she was employed in the secular music industry. She now is a singer and songwriter of contemporary Catholic music and her goal is to draw families closer to God.

Her voice is beautiful! I have heard other musicians sing her rendition of the "Anima Christi". To hear her sing it in person is something that I believe all will treasure.

Her concert was more than music. It was a sharing of her Catholic faith. Donna is unabashedly Catholic and treasures every opportunity to share the riches of our faith – the Sacraments, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the rosary, etc.

Parishioners made the following comments about Donna's music:

"Beautiful."

"She has the voice of an angel."

"So glad I went to her concert."

"Really enjoyed!"

If given the opportunity, I encourage you to attend a concert led by Donna Cori Gibson.
